

Margaret Hoss (then Borglum) Catholic Activities

I did not know until 2016 doing this research that Marge (Mom) was president of the St. Monica Soldality group (church supporters) in 1955. Research finds that the group focuses on their sons becoming priests! Ack!

"A devotion promoting prayer and self-mortification for the return to the Catholic faith of family members and friends. The core of the Sodality Devotion is weekly recitation of the St. Monica Novena, followed by the Holy Rosary for all of the intentions submitted to the Sodality."

Story at http://www.cantius.org/go/organizations/category/st_monica_sodality and I did not know that the Catholic Soldalities allowed dancing:

Sodality Attends Holy Hour of Prayer

The Sodality of Holy Trinity Church held its monthly Corporate Holy Communion Sunday at the 8:30 Mass last Sunday, Jan. 18. A great number attended.

From 7 to 8 p.m. that same day, 44 members attended the Holy Hour of Prayer held at St. Joseph's Church on Franklin St., Rochester.

Transportation was provided by Rev. Elmer Heindl, Rev. George M. Kalb, Robert Critz, James Prinzing, William Ross, Robert Scheg, John McAlpin and Herman Berthold.

After the Holy Hour, the members returned to the hall, where refreshments were served and music was provided for dancing.

So, Mom had me become an altar boy, whereupon I promptly “fainted” –aka was struck down by God– on my first official mass. I don’t remember Mom being active in Soldality thereafter. I do remember drinking wine with the priests at age 14, when she sent me to Jesuit school to straighten me out, where I would sometimes drink with the monks. I was allowed to return to public school thereafter.

But then, German taverns were serving me beer then too, and I had a full time job in addition to school.

Different times.

Marge then went on to become a member of the first Holy Trinity School Board

New School Board at Holy Trinity, Webster
